NIFTY OUTLOOK

After positive starts the Nifty traded firm in the first half before a sell off swept the markets towards the mid sessions. The Nifty nosedived more than 100 points from the intraday high of 5603.05 to close below 5500 for the first time since Sept. 13, 2012 with loss of 47.85 points.

- The price action has formed large bear candle with long upper wick which indicates the sell off. Yesterday's bear candle completely overshadows the last tow session' small bear candles.
- The index has ventured into the territory of major rising gap area of 5526-5447 formed on September 14, 2012 after the government announced reform measures. The confluence of the 50% retracement of the entire rally from June 2012 low to of to January 2013 high at (4770 - 6111) 5445 makes the 5500-5450 region a crucial support from a medium-term perspective.
- The index to respect the 5450 support area and spend time forming a base around the key support region before posting a meaningful recovery. For any positive efforts to materialize the index needs to post a successful close above the previous session's high, failing which the action will remain choppy.
- The Nifty has given a break down from a Head & Shoulders formation on the Weekly Chart. On the arithmetical scale the pattern target is placed around 5280 - 5250 range, which confluence with the 61.8% retracement level from entire rise from the June month low to January 2013 high (4770 - 6112).
- The directional indicator ADX (14,14) presently place at 26.14 above 25 indicates grip of bears and the – DMI presently placed at 34.41 where it has further room to go up to 37 which highlights more weakness at current juncture. The momentum indicator RSI placed at 29.11 near to the oversold region.

For today trend deciding level for Nifty placed at 5528 if Nifty trade above this level then it may go up to 5535 - 5543 - 5570 level. However if Nifty trade below 5528 then it may find immediate support at 5470 level any violation of such support would signal further decline up to 5448 - 5420 level.
